Artist Profile

“Sasha M might not be a household name in Singapore, but that might just change” - Bandwagon

Sasha M is the pop music singer-songwriter poised to be Singapore’s next music sensation. Having performed with Tchami (France) at Ultra Music Festival, as well as THELIONCITYBOY (Singapore) and Jack & Rai (Singapore), Sasha is ready to take the stage with her own original tunes.

Her first original composition, “Loaded”, a collaboration with a German producer, peaked at #2 on the Spotify Germany Viral 50 charts in May 2018. She has since released an acoustic version which was promoted on radio station 938Now. Most recently, she was a featured artist on the Feed Your Ambition campaign by the National Council Against Drug Abuse.

Sasha is also active as a performer. She took on the emotionally charged role of Holly in the short film, “Virtually Innocent”. She performs with Universal Studios Singapore, and was also selected as a voice actor for the National Museum of Singapore’s 131st Anniversary event #FacetimeWithHistory.
