Artist Profile

"Sasha M might not be a household name in Singapore, but that might just change" - Bandwagon

Fun and just a little sassy, Sasha's songs are set to make you move. Having tasted the big stage with Tchami (FR) at Ultra Music Festival, and performed with THELIONCITYBOY (SG) and Jack & Rai (SG), Sasha is keen to bring her own original dance-pop tunes to the crowd.

Her first original song 'Loaded', a collaboration with a German producer, peaked at #2 on the Spotify Germany Viral 50 charts, with an acoustic version played on radio station 938Now. She is featured as an artist on the Feed Your Ambition reality production by the National Council Against Drug Abuse. She has co-written with writers and producers from Los Angeles to parts of Europe, and is currently putting together material for her first EP/album.

Sasha's acting and performance credits include short film 'Virtually Innocent' by Studio Rarekind and Moore's Lore Productions, as well as Universal Studios Singapore, National Museum of Singapore, HBO Asia's Invisible Stories, and the American HBO drama series Westworld.
